PROPERTY DESCRIPTION

This wonderful Craftsman Home is situated in the very desirable Morley Field close to all restaurants, shops and park on a great block. Some of the features include original quarter sawn red oak floors, mostly original windows, crown molding, picture railing, working fireplace. The kitchen has original restored cabinets with California cooler, vintage sink and tin ceiling. New reproduction push button electrical switches have been added.

The Jack and Jill bathroom has been remodeled w/ vintage sink, toilet and clawfoot tub, subway tile and small hex floor tile. Great bonus area off of one of the bedrooms great for office with large closet. Large covered back Trex Deck (12x19). The backyard is amazing with established trees and garden areas along with the fire pit and secluded back patio/sitting area. Original bath house still remains. Here is the big surprise of all.... "A full size" never heard of in this part of town "Basement" with 2 storage rooms and laundry room.
